EASTERN AREA COORDINATION CENTER

Detailer Guide

Eastern Area Coordination Center Mission Statement

The principal mission of EACC is to provide safe, cost effective and timely coordination of resources for wildland fire emergencies. This is achieved through communication, planning, coordinating interagency needs, situational monitoring, and expediting resource requests. EACC also plays a significant role in providing logistical support for natural disasters (floods, hurricanes, wind storms, earthquakes) terrorism acts, and planned land management activities.

INTRODUCTION

Welcome

Welcome to the Eastern Area Coordination Center (EACC). EACC is the geographic area coordination center (GACC) for the 20 northeastern states, Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA), Bureau of Land Management (BLM), National Park Service (NPS), Forest Service (FS), Fish and Wildlife Service (FWS), and other cooperating agencies.

Our physical address is: EACC

626 East Wisconsin Avenue, Suite 500
Milwaukee, WI 53202

Main Phone Number: 414-944-3811

Main Fax Number: 414-944-3838 Intelligence Fax Number: 414-944-3839

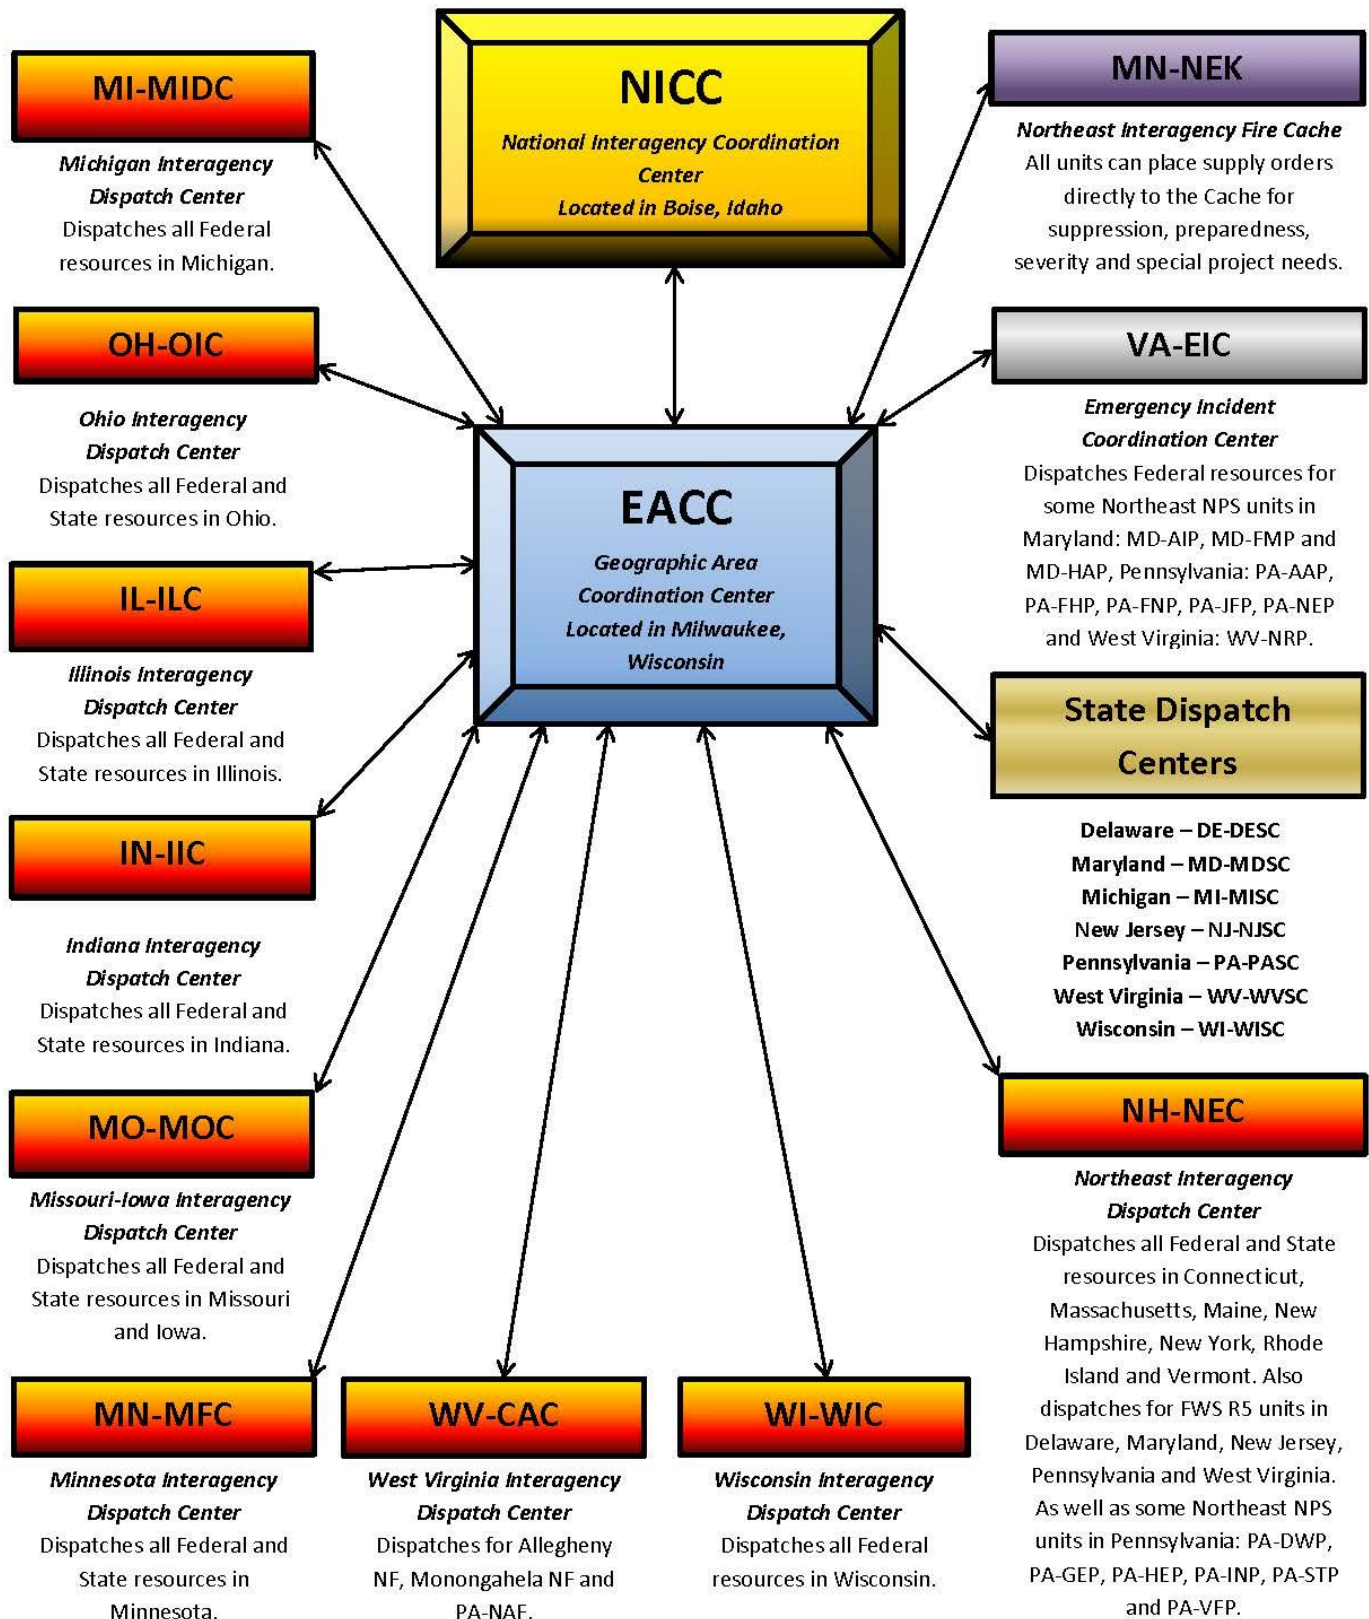

Website: <http://qacc.nifc.gov/eacc>

The Center Manager has been delegated authority from the Eastern Area Coordination Group (EACG) to move resources throughout the geographic area and to geographic areas outside of the Eastern Area to meet incident needs. Within the Eastern Area, the EACC will act as the focal point for internal and external requests not filled at the local level.

Eastern Area dispatch relationships have been established with the following dispatch centers: Delaware State Dispatch Center (DE-DESC), Illinois Interagency Dispatch Center (IL-ILC), Indiana Interagency Dispatch Center (IN-IIC), Maryland State Dispatch Center (MD-MDSC), Northeastern Interagency Dispatch Center (NH-NEC), Michigan Interagency Dispatch Center (MI-MIDC), Michigan State Dispatch Center (MI-MISC), Minnesota Interagency Fire Center (MN-MFC), Missouri-Iowa Interagency Dispatch Center (MO-MOC), New Jersey State Dispatch Center (NJ-NJSC), Ohio Interagency Dispatch Center (OH-OIC), Pennsylvania State Dispatch Center (PA-PASC), Emergency Incident Coordination Center (VA-EIC), Central Appalachian Dispatch Center (WV-CAC), West Virginia State Dispatch Center (WV-WVSC), Wisconsin Interagency Dispatch Center (WI-WIC), and Wisconsin State Dispatch Center (WI-WISC). This established ordering channel provides for the rapid movement of requests, agency review, efficient utilization of resources and cost-effectiveness.

Other Federal partners include the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Midwest & Eastern Regions, U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Regions 3 & 5, and the National Park Service, Northeast & Midwest Regions. EACC has a year round workload supporting wildland fire emergencies and natural disasters; working closely with Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) and Department of Homeland Security (DHS). Fire season in the Eastern Area generally starts in February and continues until late October.

EASTERN AREA COMPACTS

Compacts are essentially mutual aid agreements between the States authorized by Congress for the sharing of firefighter resources in the United States and adjacent areas in Canada. There are four Compact areas in the Eastern Area. EACC will generally not be involved with these types of mobilizations, however the Compact areas are a useful way to describe weather and/or fire activity in such a large Geographic Area.

GREAT LAKES: Manitoba, Michigan, Minnesota, Ontario, and Wisconsin

BIG RIVERS: Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, and Missouri

MID-ATLANTIC: Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia*, and West Virginia*

NORTHEAST: Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, Newfoundland/Labrador, New Brunswick, New Hampshire, New York, Nova Scotia, Quebec, Rhode Island, and Vermont

*Virginia and West Virginia are in the Mid-Atlantic Interstate Forest Fire Protection Compact and the Southeastern Interstate Forest Fire Protection Compact.

For information on compact contacts, see EA Interagency Mob Guide, Chapter 70, Compacts and Chapter 90, Compact Mobilizations.

THE GAS LIGHT BUILDING

History

Built in 1930 as the Corporate Headquarters for what was then the Milwaukee Gas Light Company, the 20-story Wisconsin Gas Light Building has remained a popular downtown landmark. At that time it held the distinction of being the tallest building in Milwaukee and remained so until 1973.

The art deco building was designed to resemble a flame long before the weather flame we're so familiar with was actually installed. The shape of the building, as well as the color gradations of the brick and limestone exterior, help to achieve that effect.

The flame was erected in 1956. It was a time of rapid growth, when piped-in natural gas took the place of gas produced from coal, and thousands of homes were making the switch. Company officials decided to add the weather flame as a symbol of the product they sold. It was designed and built by the Federal Sign and Signal Corporation of Chicago. "The flame consists of 1,100 feet of glass tubes surrounded by a stainless steel frame covered with quarter-inch plastic. The tubing contains neon, other gases, and a phosphor coating that together produce various colors – red, gold, and blue. The flame stands 21 feet tall, has a 9-foot diameter at its widest point, weighs 4 tons, and can withstand 120 mile-per-hour winds (equivalent to a Florida hurricane)."

The flame was lit for the first time on December 7, 1956. Then company President, S. Lloyd Neymeyer, announced the installation of the flame to the Mayor at the time, Frank P. Zeidler. He stated that the weather flame was the company's way of thanking Milwaukee "...for the opportunity our Company has had to be of service here for the past 104 years, and for many, many years in the future." The public reaction was overwhelmingly in favor of the new weather flame.

In 1960, floodlights were added to the exterior of the building. The effect was breathtaking. For 13 more years the building remained lit every night until the 1973 OPEC oil embargo. The flame and building lights were turned off to conserve energy. A few years later, after the energy crisis eased, there were numerous public requests to turn the flame and lights back on. Eventually they came back on full time. By 1984, however, the flame's old equipment could no longer be used to predict the weather and it was restored enough to burn blue, representing natural gas. It wasn't until May 17, 1985 that the flame was restored to its original color code, which is as follows:

When the flame is RED, It's warm weather ahead!
When the flame is GOLD, Watch out for cold!
When the flame is BLUE, There's no change in view!
When there's a FLICKERING FLAME, Expect snow or rain!

WELCOME TO THIS HISTORIC PIECE OF MILWAUKEE!

Hotel & Motel Safety

Vacations and business travel make hotels and motels our home away from home. It is just as important to be prepared and know what you would do in a hotel/motel emergency as it is in your own home.

BE SAFE WHEN TRAVELING!

- » Choose a hotel/motel that is protected by both smoke alarms and a fire sprinkler system.
- » When you check in, ask the front desk what the fire alarm sounds like.
- » When you enter your room, review the escape plan posted in your room.
- » Take the time to find the exits and count the number of doors between your room and the exit. Make sure the exits are unlocked. If they are locked, report it to management right away.
- » Keep your room key by your bed and take it with you if there is a fire.
- » If the alarm sounds, leave right away, closing all doors behind you. Use the stairs — never use elevators during a fire.
- » If you must escape through smoke, get low and go under the smoke to your exit.

IF YOU CAN'T ESCAPE...

SHUT off fans and air conditioners.

STUFF wet towels in the crack around the doors.

CALL the fire department and let them know your location.

WAIT at the window and signal with a flashlight or light colored cloth.

Stress in the Work Place

Anxiety is a signal our mind and body gives us that danger is near. The danger may come from internal or external sources. We feel the press of living through the stresses we experience. Stress is cumulative, as it draws upon our personal and physical resources. Different people have individual tolerances for higher-than-normal levels of stress and anxiety. When feeling over-burdened, excessive stress and anxiety can lead to lowered self-esteem and depression. In such a situation, the goal of psychotherapy is to validate your emotional experience, adjust the negative self-assessment engendered by emotional overload, and help you find the path of support and positive developmental change. Often, anxiety and stress are heightened by being caught between untenable choices in life, or between people we love (or even, sometimes, fear). These problems can be explored and understood in psychotherapy.

Below are some tips about what many have found to be at least temporarily useful coping skills for living with stress and anxiety. They are not foolproof. If you are feeling very distressed and your life is suffering, there is no substitute to talking with a professional.

1. Be flexible. Know what you can change and what you can't, go with the flow, be open to changes.
2. Laugh more. Watch a funny movie, tell a joke, read the comics.
3. Breathe slowly, deeply, and well. Relaxation begins with slow, deep breathing from your diaphragm.
4. Learn to say "no". It's hard to say no sometimes, but recognize you can't do everything, pace yourself.
5. Go ahead and make mistakes. No one's perfect. The only way we really learn is from our mistakes. Accept them as the natural process of growing in wisdom.
6. Play... with a lover, a friend, a child, a pet. Having fun is the natural way of lowering the body's stress hormones. Stress tenses, play loosens.
7. Get active. Exercise brings out the body's endorphins, natural pain-killers and pleasure-producing substances produced inside every one of us.
8. Eat well and avoid stimulants. A healthy diet makes the body strong and increases a sense of well-being. Watch those double-lattes. Caffeine and nicotine put more stress on our musculature and nervous system.
9. Talk to others. Sharing life's difficulties and problems with another person, whether a co-worker, friend, spouse, lover, or counselor, allows one to shed the weight of burdens shouldered alone.
10. Face your difficulties. Problems have a tendency to mount quickly, until there can seem to be so many as to be overwhelming. Tackle them one at a time. Set achievable goals. Your day will seem appreciably lighter after even one dreaded task is tackled.

Plus . . .

11. Allow yourself to mourn. Changes, even good changes, can bring a sense of loss for how things used to be. You have the right to grieve this loss. In fact, everyone needs that time . . . to adjust, to reminisce, and to care, to process.
